Sea Ranch Escape

Recommended Route from San Francisco Airport to The Sea Ranch...

There are a lot of different ways to get to and from The Sea Ranch and we invite you to explore them all, but if you are coming from the San Francisco Airport, this is the route that we recommend for your first visit.

From the airport, follow I-280 North to 19th Avenue and take it through San Francisco to the Golden Gate Bridge. Take Highway 101 north across the Golden Gate Bridge and remain on it north to Petaluma. (Gasoline is available on the coast but is markedly more expensive than inland. Petaluma is a good place to fill up. Also there are a number of excellent restaurants if you are passing through at meal time.)

When you reach Petaluma, take the East Washington Street exit off of Highway 101. Turn west onto East Washington Street and follow it through Petaluma. Washington Street will turn into Bodega Avenue, then into Bodega Highway, then, just before Valley Ford, it will become Highway One. Stay on Highway One traveling north through Valley Ford and Bodega Bay, and cross the Russian River, to Jenner. After Jenner, continue north on Highway One through Fort Ross, Timber Cove, and Stewart's Point to The Sea Ranch. It is a beautiful drive along the coast - please take your time and enjoy.

When you arrive in The Sea Ranch you will find our offices in The Sea Ranch Lodge at #60 Sea Walk Drive.
